THE RALEIGH NEWS

VOL. XIII--NO. 90. RALEIGH, N. C., TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 11, 1878. $5.00 PER ANNUM

FORTY-FIFTH CONGRESS.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—SENATE—Dorsey, of Arkansas, from the Conference Committee on the bill for the permanent form of government for the District of Columbia, called up the report submitted Saturday, which was concurred in without dissension. The bill now goes to the President for his signature.

The Judiciary Committee meets at half-past nine o'clock to-morrow, when a vote on the Kimmerel bill will be taken. An adverse report is almost certain, and it may be stated that the Committee are arguing the legal phase of the question. The matter of inexpediency does not enter into the argument. The Committee have made no progress on Hewitt's resolution to investigate whether the Fremont interest in the El Paso road accrues to the French bond-holders, or to the Texas Pacific railroad.

Spencer, of Alabama, moved to take up the resolution submitted by him Saturday, authorizing the appointment of a Special Committee to inquire into the alleged frauds in connection with the recent Presidential election, and began to read an argument in favor of the passage of a resolution stating that the Republican party would have submitted to the administration of President Hayes for the brief period of four years, but investigation was re-opened by the Democrats.

Morrill, of Vermont, moved the point of order as to whether the Senator had the right to discuss the points of the question on a motion to take up, and said: Two or three mornings have been frittered away when they should have been devoted to the consideration of bills on the calendar.

Spencer said he only desired five minutes, whereupon Morrill withdrew the point of order, and the motion to take up the resolution was agreed to.

Sargent submitted an amendment to have the investigation made by the the Matthews Committee appointed last Saturday, instead of a Special Committee. The resolution and amendment were referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

Sargent, of California, inquired of the Chairman of the Committee on Privileges and Elections (Wadleigh) if it was the intention of the Committee to submit a report upon the 16th amendment to the Constitution of the United States, conferring suffrage upon women, at this session?

Wadleigh replied that it was the intention of the Committee to do so.

Davis, of Illinois, Whyte, of Maryland, and Jones, of Florida, were, at their own request, excused from service on the Matthews Committee, appointed Saturday.

The distribution of the Mexican awards is still in conference.

The House.—Call of States: Among the bills introduced was one levying forty per cent. ad valorem on grape sugar.

The House is now in committee of the whole on the Sundry Civil Appropriation bil.

Adjournment on the 17th instant is becoming every day more improbable.

Nominations—Volney Hall, Postmaster, Marshal, Texas.

HOUSE.—The following are among the bills introduced and referred: By Butler, of Massachusetts, for the relief of the industrial classes, for the prompt settlement of public lands, and for the protection of the frontier from Indian depredation.

The Senate amendments to the army appropriation bill, was non-concurred in.

The Conference report on the military academy bill was agreed to.

The House then went into committee of the whole.

The civil sundry appropriation bill amount for public buildings, at Atlanta, was increased to $60,000.

Vance, of North Carolina, has an amendment ready for the Internal Revenue bill, to repeal the tax of 10 per cent on State banks.

SENATE.—The River Harbor bill came up. Windham spoke at length on the impovement of the Mississippi River.

The motion by which certain Senators were excused from serving on Matthews' committee was reconsidered, and the original order stands.

The Committee on Privileges and Elections heard further evidence in the case of Corbin vs. Butler. No result. Another meeting will be held for the purpose of closing the matter before the close of the present session.

European News.

By Cable to the News.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 10.—Caratheodori Effendi, first plenipotentiary of Turkey to Congress, is a christian.

LONDON, June 10.—The Times' dispatch from St. Petersburg, says. It is believed that Russia will set more importance on the guarantees for the state of things to be established by the Congress than on the question of the frontiers.

The correspondents of the Times at St Petersburg and Vienna both report that a very sanguine feeling prevails in those capitols, as to the peaceful result of Congress.

The Daily Telegraph's dispatch from Pera says: It is stated that a recent council of ministers decided not to surrender any fortresses pending the debates in Congress.

The Times correspondent at Bucharest declares that there is nothing in the movements of Russian troops in Roumania to give ground for apprehensions of a conflict.

The Kaffir War Drawing to an End.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, June 10.—Advices from Capetown, to the 21st of May, represent that an early cessation of the Kaffir war is expected. Sandilli, chief of the blacks, sent word to the commander of the British forces that he is tired of fighting, and wants to negotiate terms of peace. The British authorities replied that they would accept an unconditional surrender only. This will probably soon follow, and with it a speedy settlement of the trouble.

A Skirmish With the Indians.

By telegraph to the News.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—In an affair near South Mountain, Whybee county, Idaho, four citizens were killed and wounded, and one missing. The latter is believed to have been killed. Reinforcements have been sent. Another fight was expected yesterday. A considerable body of Indians were seen last night near Cold Spring Station, 65 miles from Boise City. All accounts agree that the Indians are continually passing across the stage road and across Snake river, between Big Camas prairie and the scene of hostilities in Whybee county.

Gen. Howard is expected at Boise City Tuesday. The Indians will probably make their first stand in the Juniper Mountain region, but it is evident that only a portion of their fighting force is there. They will also remain in the lava beds until dislodged or forced to surrender.

Report of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange.

By Teleg aph to the News.

NEW ORLEANS, June 10.—The Cotton Exchange report for May, of Louisiana, says: 87 letters have been received from various Parishes. The aggregate decrease per acreage is 1½ per cent. The weather has been more favorable, and the crop is ten days to two weeks earlier. Labor is about the same in numbers as last year, and more efficient than for many years. Little fertilization, confined to cotton seed and barn yard scrapings.

MISSISSIPPI.—One hundred and twenty-one reports from thirty-five counties have been received; average increase of acreage 1 per cent. Weather reports variable, but crops, generally, are two weeks ahead of last year. The plant looks healthy and is growing rapidly.

ARKANSAS—Fifty-one letters from twenty counties have been received. Increase in acreage 1 per cent. The tenth of May found the crops unfavorable, from heavy rains and grass; since the weather has been favorable, stands are good. The crop is five to ten days ahead. Prospects, as compared with last year, good. No commercial fertilizers used.

Columbia's Crew.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, June 10.—The Columbia crew will row for the Stewart and Challenge cups, over a course of about one mile and five-sixteenth in length. The Showaccamettes will probably enter for the same races. The Columbias will not enter for any pairs in the foregoing races. They will meet the best men of London and the Leander clubs, and the Oxford, Cambridge and Dublin Universities. Experts do not think the Columbias stand much of a chance for winning the first position in either race.

The Potter Committee.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASINGTON, June 10.—Ex-Congressman Dorrall, of Louisiana is here under a subpœna from the Potter Commission.

The subpœna was served on Matthews this morning. It is generally understood that he will plead his privilege as a Senator.

The Committee adjourned to half past two.

It is still probable that Matthews will ignore the subpœna from the Potter Committee, and that the Committee will appeal to the House.

Proceedings in the Committee to-day were brief and unimportant.

Amnesty and Liberation.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, June 10.—A Daily News' Madrid special says, in consequence of the favorable news from Cuba, the Spanish government has granted amnesty to all press offenders, and ordered the liberation of the Creales, imprisoned for rebellion. National rewards will be voted to Captain General Jovellar and General Martinez Campos.

GERMANY.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, June 10.—The Standard's Berlin dispatch says Nobeling's statement at the judicial investigation before he became insane, shows that he himself undertook the work, which he discussed with several persons.

The Oregon Election.

By Telegraph to the News.

PORTLAND, OREGON, June 10.—The Republican State ticket was elected. F. R. Hines, Republican, for Congress, was defeated. The Legislature on joint ballot is Democratic by ten; fifty Democrats, thirty-six Republicans, four independents.

And Underhanded Attack on Judge Schenk.

Charlotte Observer.

An anonymous scribbler, signing himself "Lincoln," but whose confidential communications are signed "J. S. Lander," very recently attempted to impose on our credulity, by penning a very bitter attack on Judge Schenck, which he expected to see published in these columns. The game was promptly blocked, and the Judge's friends are on the track of the man who doesn't dare to give his proper name when he desires to covertly attack a gentleman who has been already endorsed by nine-tenths of his fellow-citizens and neighbors.

From editorials which have recently appeared in both of the Raleigh papers, we suppose the same thing has been attempted on them, and in this connection we regret to say that the editor of the Piedmont Press has fallen into the trap laid by this unknown "Lander" who professes to hail from "Lincoln," and publishes the anonymous communication, which bears a falsehood on its face.

The article published in the Press is a verbatim copy of one sent to us, and which we have every reason to believe is false in every particular. The convention which adopted the resolutions on the 18th of May, complimentary to Judge Schenck, and which were published in this paper at the time, was a large and representative body, and as we are informed, its expression was an actual reflex of the sentiment of the people.

Escape of a Prisoner.

Correspondence of the News.

GREENVILLE, June 8.

As the jailor opened the jail door last evening, a negro confined therein for theft, rushed past him, ran through town to the bridge over the Tar river, until he came over the low grounds, and then as he was about to be taken, crawled over the railing and let himself drop into the soft mud below. He was fired upon by the jailor, and by several others on the bridge, but made good his escape. Two policemen went after him last night, but I have not hoard from them yet.

THE FRAUD INVESTIGATION.

Our North Carolina Delegation Interviewed---Unanimity of Sentiment.

Correspondence of the News.

WASHINGTON, June 8.

I transmitted to you on yesterday the views of the Hon. Robert B. Vance on the subject of the Electoral Fraud Investigation, and to-day I comply with my promise of communicating the opinions of such other members of our delegation as I have been enabled to see. Without preface or comment, and without interjecting the iteration of question and answer, I give each gentleman's utterances, not only substantially, but, I may say, almost literally.

THE HON. JOSEPH J. DAVIS.

"The Electoral Commission was created and charged with the duty of investigating the facts relating to the electoral votes of the States from which there were conflicting returns. The public sentiment of the country, and especially of North Carolina, (as evidenced by the resolutions of its Legislature, almost unanimously adopted, instructing its Senators and requesting its Representatives to vote for the electoral bill,—which resolutions were telegraphed to the delegation by Governor Vance,) demanded the appointment of the Commission, because it was understood then that unless it was done the Senate would count the vote for Hayes. The Electoral Commission failed to investigate the facts, and the charges of frauds in the States of Florida and Louisiana have been heard all over the land. These charges are brought to the attention of Congress by the State of Maryland.

"One would suppose that the parties charged with these frauds would themselves demand an investigation,—for their own vindication, if innocent. This they not only have not done, but they have interposed every obstacle in their power to an investigation. The very party which has heretofore been so ready to send committees, not only to the Southern States, but even to the city of New York, to inquire into alleged frauds in elections, now seems to be filled with dread lest the peace and harmony of the country shall be disturbed by an inquiry into alleged frauds. It is the duty of Congress to investigate the charges, to the end

1st. That if frauds are found to exist, such legislation may be had as will render a recurrence of them impossible.

2d. That if they do not exist, our institutions and the parties accused may be vindicated.

3rd. That if, as I believe, they do exist, the parties engaged in them shall stand exposed to the country and be dealt with as law and justice may require; and not only so, but so visited with public scorn that even the meanest of them will not dare to attempt again such crimes against the Government.

"It is to me," continued Mr. Davis, "incomprehensible that any honest man who may be charged with crime, should be afraid of or opposed to an investigation of the charge; and it is equally strange that, when the atmosphere is burdened with charges of fraud, and when times, places and parties are named, gentlemen of unquestioned honor and integrity should be willing to shut their eyes and cry against light If these frauds and crimes have been committed, as I believe they have, every honest man ought to wish their exposure. If, on the other hand, the charges are without foundation, every good citizen ought to be glad to know it."

Mr. Davis earnestly disclaimed any purpose to upset the title of Mr. Hayes to his seat,—the question of title having been definitely settled by the 44th Congress in creating the Commission.

THE HON. WALTER L. STEELE.

"The developments already made are precisely what the public mind has long suspected. They show the rascality of Radical officials in thwarting the public will in Florida and Louisiana, which really voted for Tilden. If the Electoral Commission had not acted on the aliunde idea and had sought to find out the facts, justice would have prevailed and the country would have escaped the stigma of fraud. The pending investigation will be a valuable addition to the history of the election (so called) of 1876, and will serve as a guide-post hereafter, by which great wrongs may be avoided. It has the value of an official investigation, where aliunde does not smother the facts and hide the fraud.

"Of course, every sensible man knows that it cannot affect the title of Mr. Hayes to the Presidency. That is res adjudicata and cannot be disturbed, otherwise than by successful impeachment. Therefore, the charge of 'revolution,' made by Radicals and some Democrats (?) who hold office, is all hypocritical and intended only to deceive the unwary. So far as I know, nine-tenths of the Democratic members of Congress are agreed that a moral effect is all that is intended by, or that will follow, the investigation. For that result it is worth a great deal."

THE HON. JESSE J. YEATES.

"I am not opposed to the investigation of the fraud growing out of the Presidential election, but I doubted the policy of it, because the whole country believed fully that there was fraud, and two of the Republicans connected with it had so confessed. This was such a strong case, that I questioned the policy of allowing the Radicals a chance to change the testimony. I, however, voted for the investigation, because I am always in favor of exposing fraud.

"The investigation, thus far, has demonstrated what I fully believed before,—that Tilden was elected President of the United States and that Hayes was not.

"There is no purpose, that I know of, to disturb the 'title' of Mr. Hayes. He was counted in, in the presence of both Houses of the 44th Congress, according to law, and he cannot be disturbed except by impeachment."

THE HON. A. M. WADDELL.

This gentleman so fully enunciated his views in his eloquent speech before the Democracy of his District, at Clinton, a few days since, that no further formal expression of his opinion is necessary. It is enough to say that his sentiments are in full accord with those of his colleagues, as above announced. The same, I am confident, may be said of who, I regret to say, has been confined to his room for several days past by indisposition. He is behind no man in detestation of fraud, and is, in himself, a splendid illustration of Southern Democratic honesty and statesmanship.

TRINITY COMMENCEMENT.

A Grand Success Predicted---Declamations, Orations and Addresses by Distinguished Visitors.

Correspondence of the News.

TRINITY COLLEGE, June 8.

I arrived at Trinity College last night. I found everything intensely excited over the approaching Commencement. Trinity is expecting a much larger crowd than has been here since the war. Judging from the number of rooms engaged, North Carolina's fairest sex will be well represented.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS.

Everything is in fine trim. The landscape gardening in the campus will be sure to attract the attention of the visitors. We were forcibly struck with the neatness of the College buildings. Every effort is being used to make the Commencement a grand success.

OPENING EXERCISES.

The Commencement really began last night, with the declamations by the representatives of the Freshman class. They all acquitted themselves with great credit, especially Mr. B. N. Bodie, of South Carolina.

To-night the representatives of the Sophomore class will deliver orations.

SERMON BY REV. F. H. WOOD.

To-morrow the sermon before the Theological Society will be preached by Rev. Frank H. Wood, of the North Carolina Conference, a young man of great pulpit ability. The occasion is looked forward to with great pleasure, and a large congregation will greet him.

The jubilee day of the Alumni will be Tuesday, and will be a day long remembered by them.

SERMONS, ADDRESSES AND ORATIONS.

Wednesday, the 12th, the sermon before the graduating class, by Bishop Wightman, at eleven o'clock. At half past 2 o'clock the Literary Address by Governor Colquitt, of Georgia, who will be welcomed by our beloved Governor Vance.

Thursday, the orations of the graduating class, eighteen in number.

RECEIVING THEIR DEGREES.

Mr. J. W. Lucas, of Cumberland county, and the three Messrs Giles, of Onslow county, have stood the examination, and will receive degrees of A. B., which will be a new era in the history of the college. Every indication that the commencement will be a grand success.

THE MOFFETT BELL PUNCH.

Views of a McDowell Writer.

Correspondence of the News.

MARION, June 8.

The News has certainly endeared itself to its numerous readers and the moral portion of North Carolina, regardless of party fealty, religious creed, race or color in espousing the cause of the Moffett Bell Punch Liquor Law—showing the good resulting from such a law in the noble State of Virginia, and what our own State might realize, by enacting a similar law. I hope therefore that each county in the State will elect Representatives who favor such a law for North Carolina, but should it be otherwise will not the ladies of our State with all moral thinking men of every political shade, religious creed, of every race or color, join in a memorial to the next General Assembly imploring that honorable body to give us the Moffett Bell Punch Liquor Law, to the end that if men will drink the intoxicating draught to the injury or destruction of their mental faculties, waste their manhood, and set at defiance the pleadings of society that their crime shall be made the means of fitting the next generation for nobler stations by creating a school fund sufficient to educate the poor children of the country, from a tax on each drink, pint or quart of liquor sold and drank, also a tax for State purposes on the same in the nature of a deposit made by the drinker to pay the cost of prosecuting him for crimes committed while under its influence and thereby relieve our lands, property and industries from the burdens of taxation.

Death of Mrs. Professor McIver.

Correspondence of the News.

GREENSBORO, June 8.

The wife of Prof. Alex. McIver, (formally a teacher in the University of North Carolina, but for several years of the Greensboro Graded School,) died yesterday, the 7th, at their home in Greensboro, leaving a husband and six children, the oldest of whom (a son) is now a cadet at West Point. They are natives of Moore county, N. C.

Correspondence of the News.

MOORESVILLE, June 8.

The exercises of the fifth session of Mooresville High School, under the administration of Messrs. Frontis and Teazar, closed the 6th inst., with declamations and original speeches from the boys, and an address on education from Col. Armfield, of Statesville, in the day, and charades, tableaux, &c., at night.

A great many people were there, and altogether, it was a very pleasant affair. The Statesville Band was in attendance, and made some most excellent music.

ALAMANCE CONVENTION.

Proceedings of Primary Meetings and Nominations.

Communicated to the News.

GRAHAM, June 4.

In pursuance of a call of the Democratic Executive Committee of Alamance county, a meeting of the Democratic party of said county was held at the Court House, in Sparta, on Monday, 3rd of June, 1878, when Dr. John I. Smith was called to the chair, and D. C. Edmunds and W. C. Fields were appointed Secretaries.

On motion, E. L. Vaughan was called upon to explain the object of the meeting. DELEGATES APPOINTED.

On motion, the chairman was requested to appoint the delegates to the various conventions, which he did, by making the following appointments:

Smith, for Chief Justice, and David Schenck for one of the Associate Justices, and for the candidates that may be recommended from the conventions of the three districts in which Superior Court Judges are to be elected.

Armfield to be our first choice as our next Representative in the Congress of the United States.

WAKE COUNTY LETTER.

Senator Merrimon's Card---Wake County Representatives---Judge Schenck.

Correspondence of the News.

We have read with care the circular letter of Senator Merrimon and the editorials of the 8th and 9th in the News on the same. Your views plainly express what the citizens of Wake feel in this entire matter, and we owe you many thanks for your plain explanations and your honest opinions as to what ought to and what has (with one exception) governed party nominations with us.

REPRESENTATIVES THE PEOPLE WANT.

We are not opposed to lawyers, as a class, and I think "St. Mary's" was only alluding to the many we have sent to the Legislature to make laws, who have, through honest ignorance or with an eye to the unsoundness of the laws voted on by them, and therefore continued litigation made themselves obnoxious to the farmers. It is true we would like to try a representation of farmers, mechanics and merchants just one time, and how we would make laws for the lawyers. We think the legal profession is as well legislated in this Christian community as any other, and with due candor, if we had been raised to think and speak any way, we might be like them. We hope to see several gentlemen of the legal profession among our honored members from this county, of whom more anon.

JUDGE SCHENCK.

That question of veracity between R. A. Shotwell and Judge Schenck has somewhat excited the members of the old klan (of which both were members) in Harnett, Moore, Chatham and Wake, though we believe that if Judge Schenck should be nominated, that they would be the old established usage of voting by convention or caucus nomination—majority always to rule. FARMERS.

THE MERRIMON CARD.

Comments of the State Press.

Monroe Express.

We cannot, as a conscientious Democrat, and a supporter of those principles and ideas which are the paramount safeguards of Democracy and Southern unity, lend our aid to a man who, to quote his own words, "erred," even if that "one error be a venial one," on the side of Democratic disintegration and Radical supremacy. He should not protest against "being sacrificed and rejected by his party," when, to further his own ambitious ends and secure his election to the United States Senate, he and his friends wilfully sacrificed, and rejected his party in 1872. We decline supporting Judge Merrimon, and despite his defamatory accusation of Governor Vance, are in favor of that gentleman for the United States Senate, first, last, and all the time.

Char'otte Observer.

Finally, as to the relative claims, merits and capabilities of Gov. Vance and Judge Merrimon, we shall have to defer speaking until another time. Our purpose at the outset was only to review briefly the card of the last named gentleman. Other points in it might be referred to and met successfully but the card itself limits our space. While, as we have said, it is ingenious in some respects, we cannot see how it can alter the public judgment or cause a change of mind on the part of any intelligent reader who is familiar with the facts. There is a subtle vain of independentism running through the entire letter, but it is sufficiently perceptible to carry its own antidote with it, and even if it were not its effects would be counteracted by such healthy, outspoken sentences as this: "Those who sustain and encourage intriguers and those who seek to circumvent the popular will are not entitled to public confidence and will not enjoy it for a long period of time."

Monroe Express.

In reference to this unheard of system of electioneering, this having candidates pledged and instructed to vote for Gov. Vance, it may be usual and it may be a system original with the people of North Carolina, but it is claimed, and the people do instruct. For once they are determined that their voices shall be heard in the choice of a United States Senator, and it is to prevent just such combinations as elected Judge Merrimon to the Senate in 1872, that originated this "unheard of system" in the minds of Democrats who are devoted to party integrity, and are inflexibly pledged to obey the mandates of the sovereign people.

It is "an extreme effort." It is an effort of the people. And when such an effort is made, politicians like Judge Merrimon always cry "revolution." We do intend to "pack" the Legislature—to "pack" it with men who are solemnly pledged to obey the wishes of the people.

Charlotte Observer.

We care nothing at all about whether Judge Merrimon was in collusion with the Republican members of the Legislature or not. He certainly bid for their support when he became an independent candidate for the Senate (and an independent candidate he did become, by his own admissions), and whether this bid was by word or only by actions, is entirely immaterial to the question. Governor Vance was the Democratic nominee, and he was not. He received the Republican vote and Governor Vance did not. These are the facts thus far, and we accept Judge Merrimon's own statement, and even then make out a case against him. He refused to abide by the decision of the body duly constituted and vested with the power to make a nomination, and threw himself upon the charities of the Republican party, and by the votes of its members was elected to the Senate of the United States.

Judge Merrimon may call this a "venial error." We call it a very grave one, and maintain that the principle, if generally applied, would utterly destroy all party organization, and bring political parties to a condition of chaos. Mr. Merrimon may cite his precedents. We care not in how illustrious footsteps he may have trod. The example is evil, only evil, and that continually; it boots nothing who may have set it.

RUTHERFORD COUNTY.

Serious Accident--County Convention.

Correspondence of the News.

RUTHERFORDTON, June 7.

To-day a horse driven by Captain W. L. Twitty, of this place, ran away on front street, and threw the Captain and Mrs. Twitty out, injuring the Captain very badly and stunning his wife for a little while. It is hoped that the injury will not prove fatal though there are some ugly bruises on the gentlemans head.

DUTY OF DISAPPOINTED DEMOCRATS.

Our County Convention was held on Monday last and candidates nominated for the various offices. The gentlemen whose names were before the Convention and who were not nominated seem to meet the disappointment with the pluck of true Democrats, and declare themselves ready to support the nominees cheerfully.

We can't help, and don't want to "help" feeling proud and glad at his renomination. The friend and schoolmate of our boyish days; the gifted and talented gentleman; the sagacious and cultivated statesman; the scholar and patriot, we glory in his success.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE.

Commencement Week---The Exercises---Distinguished Visitors.

Correspondence of the News.

WAKE FOREST, June 8.

The week of the session has closed. Examinations are all over, and the young men all feel free; did I say all? No, the seniors, I suppose, are now exercised over their orations, and, truly, the young men have to appreciate their freedom as the freed bird. Their joyous laugh may be heard on all sides. We all now await the commencement next week. We have enjoyed very much the account of the Chapel Hill Commencement, and feel that they had a full quota of the enjoyment of such occasions. There is no doubt that next week will be the grandest in the history of Wake Forest. It will be the dawning of a still brighter era for her, and the friends are all happy over the contemplation. May their fondest wish be fully realized.

THURSDAY.

Thursday, 11 o'clock a. m., the following young gentlemen, composing the senior class, will deliver their orations: J G Bunch, J C Codell, F R Cooper, W E Daniel, W J R Ford, N D Johnson, W T Jordan, A E Walters.

LAYING THE CORNER STONE.

At 3 1-2 o'clock the corner stone of the new building will be laid. Speeches are to be made by Dr. Pritchard and Governor Vance and other distinguished divines and statesmen.

The laying of the corner stone will be very attractive, and will draw a large crowd. In fact, the oldest inhabitants say they have never heard of so many people that are coming.

THE SOCIAL GATHERING.

And then Thursday night, at 7 1-2 o'clock, the social gathering in the Literary Halls, complimentary to the class, will be to a majority of us the crowning work and chief corner stone. And a gay time will that be. We hear that Raleigh will be well represented. Of course it will be, as two special trains will be run. Already visitors begin to come in. Hope to see you, Mr. Editor, and form your acquaintance.

GREETINGS FOR TRINITY.

We send friendly greetings to our sister College, Trinity, the best wishes for their enjoyment of the week, and our most earnest wish is they may have a good a time as we expect to have.

STATE CONVENTION.

We hope the State Convention will finish their business next Thursday in time to come out on the 5:30 o'clock train. We cordially invite them. We will give all a hearty welcome.

A Campaign Slander.

When Dr. R. V. Pierce was a candidate for State Senator, his political opponents published a pretended analysis of his popular medicines, hoping thereby to prejudice the people against him. His election by an overwhelming majority severely rebuked his traducers, who sought to impeach his business integrity. No notice would have been taken of these campaign lies were it not that some of his enemies (and every successful business man has his full quota of envious rivals) are republishing these bogus analyses. Numerous and most absurd formulas have been published, purporting to have come from high authority; and it is a significant fact that no two have been at all alike—conclusively proving the dishonesty of their authors.

Writer in Radical Central Organ.

As soon as Governor Brogden was able to go out, he went to the Postoffice Department to obtain information in regard to the appointment thus made in his district. He was given to understand "that when the North Carolina Senators and Representatives make recommendations for office they have more influence than Republicans.

Keep Cool.

This is a bit of good advice in these "trying" times. 'Tis also a suggestion easy to follow, since by investing in Blake's Ice, the purest and best, one can have a luxury to cool a fevered brow or a parched throat. In our climate ice has a thousand uses and is a necessity. *

There is Trouble in Store.

For those who neglect to rectify irregularities of the stomach, liver and bowels, which they foolishly imagine will "come right of themselves." Of this silly error such persons are usually disabused by the development of some serious chronic malady, traceable to what they were pleased to consider a trifling disorder of the above named associate organs. Such a culmination is easily avoided. A course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters invariably has the effect of renewing the secretive action of a torpid liver, restoring healthy digestion and assimilation, and rendering the habit of body perfectly regular. The activity of these important functions being restored, and the entire system toned and regulated by this incomparable corrective and invigorant, no danger to the general health is to be apprehended from causes which, if not eradicated in time, will assuredly undermine it. jun1-6t

Senator Merrimon and Governor Vance.

The News proceeds now to discuss the personal matters in the card of Senator Merrimon, and will then dismiss the subject. These matters are not here noticed so much to defend Governor Vance, as to give to the public that correct information, which, had the Senator as fully possessed, and dispassionately considered, it is not believed he would have presented his case in the manner he has.

The statement of Mr. W. H. Avera, of the Rocky Mount Mail, a State Senator in 1872, respecting the Monday morning caucus, and the subsequent restoration of the name of Governor Vance to the candidacy before the caucus, is brought forward in vindication of Senator Merrimon, and to personally prejudice the Governor as having through management and machinations, procured his name to be again brought before the caucus. The fact was in reference to the Monday caucus, that a friend of Senator Merrimon presided, and when the Convention adjourned after having come within a vote or two of the nomination of General Scales, it was this friend of Judge Merrimon who declared the caucus adjourned, when quite a number of the friends of Governor Vance were unwilling to such adjournment, and some went so far as to assert that the motion to adjourn had not been fairly carried.

Governor Vance had left the city on Monday night. He had declared his purpose to leave on Sunday night, but was persuaded to remain, by friends of Judge Merrimon, the latter himself calling on the Governor at his room on Sunday, and expressing the hope that he would remain, that on Monday something might be done to heal the breach and restore unity to the party. He did remain, not in the hope, however, of seeing himself nominated, but, in answer to the appeals made to him not to leave. On Monday evening he would remain no longer, though still so importuned to do so, and when he would go, a friend of Judge Merrimon rode with him to the depot, still importuning him, and suggesting that his name might go before the caucus again the next day. To this the Governor replied he could not stay, and, while he did not believe his name would be restored, he called a friend, and distinctly stated that he forbade the putting back of his name, unless it were done by the friends of Judge Merrimon. This friend of the Judge professed to speak for other friends of the same gentleman, and that it was their desire to nominate Governor Vance, and thus restore good feeling, and repair the wrong that had been done. On Tuesday morning this supporter of Judge Merrimon proposed the name of Governor Vance, and during the discussion, the chairman of the caucus, Senator Love, a friend and supporter of Judge Merrimon, left the chair, stood upon the floor, and in a speech understood to be in support of the motion of Mr. Bryson, plead eloquently for harmony and restoration. Under these circumstances, with the understanding that enough of the former supporters of Judge Merrimon would then vote for Vance to elect him, the nomination was made, and the caucus adjourned, less than an hour intervening before the Legislature must ballot for United States Senator, under the law requiring balloting each day at noon. It is an established fact of history that Governor Vance had nothing to do with bringing his name again before the caucus, and it is also well known that his friends never would have permitted it but for intimations and assurances held out from the Merrimon side. If there is impeachment for bad faith, it is much more probable that it existed on the other side, and that it was practiced for a purpose, the Republicans both on Sunday and Monday freely accusing the Merrimon men of having abandoned the field, when on the very next ballot they should have come to the rescue. Without going into any charges of bad faith, for the News is as reluctant to believe that any of the gentlemen referred to were capable of premeditating bad faith, as it believes Senator Merrimon to have been in bad taste to charge that there was any gentleman in the Legislature of 1872, whom Governor Vance could have packed, yet this much may be said:—The Republicans, finding that Vance had been re-nominated, which was of all things what they then desired, began to work on the Merrimon men, and before the hour for balloting, had pledged the undivided Republican strength of the Legislature for Merrimon, and it is the fairest and most charitable, all around, to conclude that these gentlemen who had so earnestly stood out for Judge Merrimon, now seeing his election certain, again broke away and cast their votes for him. Mr. Bryson, who had re-nominated Governor Vance in the caucus, seeing the election of Judge Merrimon possible, changed his vote in the open session from Vance back to Merrimon, Mr. Andrew C. Cowles alone adhering to the change from Merrimon to Vance. It is therefore seen that the reference to the Monday and Tuesday morning caucuses cannot have the effect to implicate Governor Vance, since his name was brought back by friends of Judge Merrimon; neither is there anything in the premises to strengthen the case of Senator Merrimon; and the object in thus reproducing a page of very unprofitable party history is not clearly seen, unless it be to re-open old wounds which the soothing hand of time had so effectually healed.

When Governor Vance was nominated in caucus for the Senate in 1870, his friends gave the pledge that should his disabilities be not removed, and he not admitted, he would resign in time for that Legislature to elect. He was elected, and when the great difficulty of his admission was fully realized, the obstacles and delay appreciated, he placed himself in the hands of his friends, and when the matter was brought to the attention of the Legislature in March or April 1871, it was the manifest sense, expressed with emphasis, that North Carolina having chosen her Senator, who by every right and reason ought to be admitted, if it was the deliberate purpose of Radical hate to still further crucify the State, the representatives of the people were in no hurry or frame of mind to yield to dictation from Washington in the matter, and as the session of Congress was drawing to a close, it was advised that Governor Vance withhold his resignation, then at the disposal of the Legislature, and if not admitted before the close of the adjourned session of that body the next winter, he might then fulfil his promise to resign to the Legislature that elected him, which it is remembered he did, and Senator Ransom was chosen in the winter of 1872.

Between the efforts of Governor Vance to have himself admitted to the seat in the Senate, which was his by virtue of the favor of the people, and the impeachment, or proposed impeachment of Governor Holden, there was never the slightest possible connection whatever. In advance of the Senatorial nomination in 1870,—it is stated upon recollection to have been during the October Fair of 1870, at a meeting of the State Executive Committee, to which leading Democrats were invited in conference,—Governor Vance made a speech, in which it was suggested that if the Republicans would unite with the Democrats of the Legislature in a call for an unrestricted Constitutional Convention it would be better for the State than impeachment. That whereas, by impeachment, only Governor Holden would be removed from and disqualified for holding office, by a convention, reconstructing the State government, every Republican State official would be gotten rid of, and the Democrats placed in full possession of the Executive and Judicial branches as well as the Legislative, which they had just succeeded in securing. This may have occurred at the assembling of the Legislature, in 1870, it was certainly in advance of any Senatorial nomination, and it is believed to have been at the October Fair, for the meeting was in the Senate Chamber, where the Democrats have never caucussed when in the majority, and a meeting, believed to have been the State Agricultural Society, was going on at the same moment in the Hall of the House of Representatives. At all events, there was, nor could be no connection between that meeting or any object there entertained, or speech made, and the admission of Governor Vance to the Senate of the United States, to which position he had not then been elected.

Respecting the gubernatorial canvass of 1872, and the canvass which any gentleman may have made, it was scarcely necessary for Senator Merrimon to have alluded at all. In the campaign which Governor Vance made in 1876, he was very materially aided by Senator Merrimon, and the service was so gracefully tendered and so gratefully received, that it would have been the heighth of bad manners for Governor Vance to have intimated or suspected, even, that the Senator had his own succession in view. Governor Vance has spoken in all campaigns in North Carolina. The people always want to hear from Vance when anything political is going on, and if he has any object of his own, separate from the interests and desires of the people they do not allow him to cherish it but in their presence and on the stump before them. And in regard to the matter of campaign expenses, that reference is in very bad taste, and the comparison of their respective estates unfortunate, for it is well-known that Governor Vance is a poor man, possessing not one dollar to ten of Senator Merrimon's. And in 1876, when the demand was almost universal that Vance should run for Governor, he resisted it on the ground that he was not actually able to make the campaign, that it required all his time and earnings at home to support his family. To this the public is familiar with the party response. He was ordered into the field to win the victory, let the expense take care of itself.

The cases of Governor Graham and Judge Manly, in 1865, were not analagous to that of Governor Vance in 1870. Graham and Manly were chosen under the Johnson plan of reconstruction. Nobody was thereunder admitted from the South to seats in either House of Congress. In 1870, nobody but Vance was rejected, from this State, at least. The measure of value or importance which Senator Merrimon would give a seat in the Senate, appears to be a pecuniary one. This is not apt to read well to those Senators who annually spend in Washington ten and twenty times the amount of their salaries. With them, and to the general intelligence of the country, that high position is not sought or occupied alone for the dimes and dollars doled out by the Sergeant-at-Arms.

The matter of division of the back Senatorial salary, which Senator Ransom magnanimously offered to Governor Vance, has before been alluded to, and, on one occasion, at least, to the attempted prejudice of Senator Ransom. In justice to both gentlemen, a few facts in relation to that matter, may not here be out of place. In the Winter of 1872, sitting with General Ransom in his room at the Yarbrough House, on Senatorial caucus night, receiving the caucus bulletins, the writer suggested to General Ransom that should he now get the seat which Governor Vance had been forced to relinquish, it would be the handsomest act of his life to divide with the Governor the Senatorial back-salary, which, under the precedent, would have to be drawn. The gallant Ransom replied, that in advance of his election and admission to the Senate, he could promise neither himself nor his friends what he would do toward Governor Vance, respecting his disabilities or anything else; but that nothing which he ought to do as a Senator would be left undone. Both the subject of disabilities and back-salary were alluded to, in conversation with a very near friend of Senator Ransom, at Weldon, one night late in March, 1872, when it was said that General Ransom had thought much on these matters, and would do whatever he could and should in the premises. Residing a short time in Charlotte in the Spring of 1872, and ascertaining the sentiment of the people at the home of Governor Vance, that Senator Ransom was expected to accomplish the removal of the disabilities of the Governor, a letter was written to Senator Ransom, from Richmond, Virginia, after consultation with one or two gentlemen of that city, urging him to spare no effort or legitimate means to have the disabilities relieved, and the names of some Republican Senators were suggested who would, if appealed to, it was confidently believed, would vote for such measure. The address at Trinity College in 1872, was to have been delivered by Senator Ransom. Finding that the session of Congress was about to be prolonged, he telegraphed Governor Vance to go and make the address for him. The Governor had not the time for the trip or to prepare the address. He was urged by the writer to comply if he could, that Senator Ransom had worked very hard for the removal of his disabilities, and further intended to offer him the Senatorial back salary. Governor Vance promptly replied that he could not take it. Senator Ransom and Governor Vance met at Trinity. The tender was there made. Gentlemen were advised with in regard to the matter, among them, it has always been understood, was Judge Merrimon, then candidate for Governor, who thought it highly creditable and magnanimous in Senator Ransom to make the offer, and in every sense, most proper for Governor Vance to accept it. Of course, the allusion was not made to the matter by Senator Merrimon as involving anything improper in the transacsion, but such imputations have been made, and it has not been deemed improper to here present a brief and hitherto unwritten history of the matter.

In conclusion, Senator Merrimon is mistaken in supposing that any expression of the people favorable to Governor Vance is a rebuke to him, and that the expressions of the newspaper correspondents and the county meetings are not the spontaneous outbursts of the people. Governor Vance has gone on no junketing or electioneering trip. He has declined three times as many invitations as he has accepted. These invitations spring from the desire of the people to see their Governor. It was so when Caldwell and Brogden occupied the same position. It would have been so had Senator Merrimon been Governor; it would be so with him as Senator, were he in the State.

The News has now done with the card of Senator Merrimon. Throughout this review it has been the anxious desire to avoid the utterance of a word that could wound or offend Senator Merrimon or his friends. They are of the Democratic party, are honorable and meritorious gentlemen; and he is an honored and distinguished representative of the State at Washington. Whatever should detract from him, would detract from the State. To dishonor him would be to dishonor the people of North Carolina.

Swift Galloway, Esq.

Of Swift Galloway, Esq., the noble, generous, brave, and these constitute the first elements of greatness, nominated for Solicitor by the Democratic Judicial Convention at Goldsboro last week, the Messenger says:—

It stands greatly to the credit of Captain Galloway that while he never objected, he did not seek the position. The generous endorsement of him by the good people of Greene—his adopted county—was of course gratifying to him as being a genuine expression of their confidence and esteem, and the more appreciated because it came unsolicited and when he was not able to be present at their meeting. Throughout the exciting contest for the nomination he and his friends acted most unselfishly and magnanimously. Seemingly unable to get their own choice, they were perfectly contented and willing to take that of others, and in this spirit Captain Galloway withdrew his name early during the balloting, and the Greene delegation gave an indiscriminate support to nearly all the other gentlemen before the Convention.

Captain Galloway is a native of Brunswick county, but has been residing in this section since 1868, first in Wayne, and the last six or seven years in the county of Greene. He is a lawyer of excellent professional standing and of impressive appearance. As a speaker, either at the Bar or on the stump his manner is impassioned and his voice strong; his language remarkably elegant and chaste, and his ideas vividly and forcibly illustrated and expressive. Socially Captain Galloway is plain, unpretending, but ever courteous, a noble specimen of manhood, and consequently he enjoys great popularity among his people. He will make a capable and reliable Solicitor.

As a gallant soldier during the war he won a title to the gratitude of his fellow-citizens. He served faithfully and bears a vivid remembrance of the struggle in a crippled leg to this day.

The advance of science within the last decade has been so truly wonderful that many are ready to exclaim that nothing is impossible. Liver is King.

The Liver is the imperial orgrn of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.

The Prevention of a Terrible Disaster.

No disorders, excepting the most deadly forms of lung disease, involve such a tremendous destruction of organic tissue as those which fasten upon the kidneys. Such maladies, when they become chronic—and none are so liable to assume that phase—completely wreck the system. To prevent this terrible disaster, recourse should be had upon the first manifestation of trouble, to Hostetter's Bitters, which experience has proved to be highly effective as a means of imparting tone and regularity to the organs of urination, as well as to the liver, stomach and bowels. Another beneficial result of this medicine, naturally consequent upon its diuretic action is the elimination from the blood of impurities which beget rheumatism, gout, dropsy, and other maladies. By increasing the activity of the kidneys, it augments the depurative efficiency of those organs, which are most important outlets for the escape of such impurities.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipt that will cure you, free of charge. Mr. A. Speer, of New Jersey, one of the largest grape producers in the east, commenced but a few years ago in a small way, to make wine from currants, blackberries, and other fruits. Weather Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, June 10.

For the South Atlantic and East Gulf States, higher pressure; West to North winds; nearly stationary temperature, and clear or partly cloudy weather will prevail, preceded by occasional coast rains.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——The Mayor's office is being given a general overhauling.

——See the notice that there will be a meeting of the Democratic voters of this Township to-morrow evening.

——The political news gatherers and narrators wear their same old look, with the convention so near upon us.

——The State Treasurer has issued drummers' licenses to E. B. Taylor, Richmond, Va; and J. B. Brown, Baltimore, Md.

——Jonah Boughton, the temperance talker, has gone to Wilmington, and will there dispense red ribbons to the reconstructed this week.

——Wilmington has already two cotton compresses and now adds a third. Charlotte also has one. Raleigh, behind the times, as usual, has none.

——The police report the city as being quieter on Sunday last than for a long time, there being no drunkenness apparent, no rioting, or bad behavior.

——Visitors to Wake Forest College should remember that a special train will leave here on Thursday, at 9 a. m. for that institution, arriving there in an hour.

——People appeared peculiarly pugnacious yesterday. The air was full of rows in the afternoon, but no serious damage was done, one party being mulcted to the extent of $5 for his share in an affray.

——The long platform in the cotton yard has been removed, thus affording space for base-ball games, as well as for military maneuvres. The idea is a good one, for the square is useless until the cotton season opens.

——Before the Mayor yesterday only three offenders appeared, all white, one masculine and two feminine. All were guilty of the same offence, drunk on the streets Saturday night, and in punishment thereof each received a sentence of twenty-four hours durance in the guard house.

Cheek.

The impudence of some men actually attains the sublime, sometimes, and rises to heights which even the late lamented Beau Hickman could not scale. The latest in this line comes from an eastern man and is in the form of a letter addressed to a prominent gentleman here. The appeal therein made is a pitcous one, and is as follows:

"I want you to send me ten dollars, as my dogs are numerous, exceedingly poor, and sick. Have just lost two of my best, and if I do not get help soon, the whole pack will die. Now they cannot bark, but have just sufficient energy and strength to whine a little when they lean up against the house. You must not fail to send me the money, as you have no dogs. I assure you it will be thankfully received and duly appreciated, not only by your poor friend but by all of my dogs."

To this gentle request the applicant for aid received the fallowing excellent reply.

"There is a an old saying among sailors, that a messmate is before a shipmate, a shipmate before a stranger, and a stranger before a dog. I am sorry to say that I have so many messmates, shipmates and strangers to provide for that I have nothing to spare for the dogs. I am sorry I can not help you and them."

Convention Notes.

The State Convention is the feature of this week. It is probable that the city will be crowded with delegates, the interest being widespread. The convention is a judicial one, and will nominate the Judges of the Supreme Court, a Chief and two Associate Justices, and three Superior Court Judges.

This evening a special train will arover the R. & A. Air Line and Carolina Central Railway, from Shelby, laden with delegates from the west. The various roads in the State have made special rates of fare for the benefit of delegates, and several will run special trains for their greater convenience. The time until Thursday will doubtless be spent in caucusing and discussing all possible plans and measures. Once prearranged, the nominations and other business can be made in a brief time, probably during Thursday.

Democratic Rally.

There will be a meeting of the Democratic voters of St. Mary's township at Springfield Academy on Saturday, June 15th, 1878 at 3 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of re-organizing the party in that township, and to select delegates to represent St. Mary's township in the County Convention, which meets on Saturday, June 22d, to nominate candidats for county officers and the Legisislature. The call for the meeting is made by C. N. Allen, Chairman of the Township Executive Committee.

Catholic Pic-Nic.

The teachers and scholars of St. John's Catholic Church to-day enjoy their picnic at the beautiful farm of Mr. John G. Williams, near the city, on the R. & G. R. R. The train will leave the new depot at 8 a. m. For the convenience of parties wishing to attend, tickets have been placed on sale at the price of 50 cents, at the bookstores. The occasion will be made a festive one, as a string band will attend, and there will be dancing all day. It is expected that the number of excursionists will be large.

Caution.

A party in the city, suspecting that his drawer was systematically robbed, placed therein some marked counterfeit bills and one of the bills with a cross mark on one or more of the figures five, in ink, on the back has been taken. All parties should be on the lookout, five identify the party presenting such and dollar note for payment or to obtain change.

Hail Storms.

It would appear that this year we are blessed with a series of storms of hail, wind and rain, increasing in severity. In portions of the county, already this season, the crops have been almost entirely destroyed. The close atmosphere of Sunday, the threatening masses of clouds that lowered in the sky everywhere, showed that we might look for another storm.

This time Panther Branch Township was the scene of the visitation. We are informed by an eye-witness that at two P. M. the most terrific storm of wind and hail passed through that township. In its course of destruction it swept a section of country about a mile in width, laying it waste. The violence of the wind was greater than ever before known. The roof of a cottage was torn off and carried away, and yet such was the noise of the storm, that the owner, seated in a lower room, knew not of the partial destruction of his dwelling. The hail stones fell in showers, and of such size as to kill poultry and even the birds in the woods. The hail stones were seen of the size of a man's fist, and of the queerest possible shapes. The growing cotton was literally blotted out of existence in the section of country reached by the storm. The blades of the growing corn were stripped from the stalks and beaten into the ground, leaving erewhile verdant fields innocent of greenness.

This exceedingly violent storm lasted in its intensity about 10 minutes, but in that brief period a destruction was completed of which this section has never witnessed the equal. The farmers are in despair, their only chance being an entire replanting of crops. The fruit trees have been despoiled of all their wealth, for not a bough bearing an apple or a peach can be found.

In addition to the visitation of the storm in Panther Branch township, we also hear of a most disastrous one in New Light township, adjoining the Granville county line, north of this city. It struck a belt of country half a mile in width, about 1 p. m., and was brief in its duration. The gale blew a regular hurricane. The largest trees were uprooted in an instant and the roads were rendered utterly impassable. The furious tornado twisted the tops of large trees off and carried them a distance of over five hundred yards, in some cases leaving them in the midst of cultivated fields. The rainfall was a perfect deluge, while the hail accompanying it was greatly destructive to vegetation as well as fruits of all kinds. The fences are blown away, and stock of all kinds wander amidst the farms, destroying what the storm has left.

The people are almost in despair after this terrible visitation. Our county is indeed a sufferer this season, and should these storms continue, all the Spring's bright prospects will vanish into thin air.

The Worley Murderers.

On Friday next, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m., Noah Cherry, Robt. Thompson, and Harris Atkinson will be executed at Goldsboro, for the murder of James Worley and wifeon the 11th day of February last, in the county of Wayne.

We learn that the scaffold has been finished, and the culprits are preparing to meet their fate. Noah Cherry and Robt. Thompson are very penitent; they are praying constantly, old Noah frequently weeps over his approaching fate Harris Atkinson don't seem to care a fig about death. Each of the condemned has expressed a desire to address the audience at some length.

It is believed that several thousand people will assemble in Goldsboro to witness the execution. Of course the trees and roofs of buildings in the immediate vicinity of the jail will be in great demand.

Complimentary German.

Last evening another was added to the list of delightful dances this season. The German was given by a party of University students, assisted by several of their friends here, to a few of the young ladies of the city. The dancing hall in the Bagley building was the scene of the festivities. Though but few participated, the number being necessarily limited, the scene was a brilliant one, the costumes being tasteful and handsome.

Among the ladies present, either as dancers or spectators, were the following: Misses Mil Haywood, Carrie Winder, D. Bryan, Placide Engelhard, Cora McDowell, of Morganton, Annie Snow, Lavine Haywood, Mary A. Meares, of Wilmington Bessie Batchelor, Katie Devereux, Nellie Manly; Rosabel Englehard, Mary Manly, Mrs. W. R. Gales, Mrs. A. C. Sanders, Mrs. J. B Batchelor, Mrs. J. A. Englehard, Mrs. J. D. Whitaker.

Funeral of Mr. Hicks.

At the morning service at the Salisbury Street Baptist Church on Sunday last, the funeral services of the late Mr Joseph H. Hicks, were conducted by Rev. T. H. Pritchard, D. D., the pastor. The interment was at Oakwood. The deceased was one of the overseers at the Penitentiary, and was a brother of W. J. Hicks, Esq.

U. S. Circuit Court.

Court met yesterday at 10 a. m. His Honor Judge Brooks presiding. In the forenoon the civil docket was called over and a number of cases continued.

The afternoon was consumed in the continuation of the case of A. W. Shaffer, Register in Bankruptcy.

Attention Democrats.

There will be a meeting of the Democratic voters of Raleigh township on Monday evening at 8 o'clock, at Metropolitan Hall. Let every Democrat be at this meeting as matters of interest to all will be brought before the meeting.

By order of the Democratic Township Committee.

Maryland Medical Journal.

Edited by North Carolinians, this periodical, published in Baltimore, is naturally considered valuable by our people. The character of its subject-matter is useful, the selections of a high merit, while the latest discoveries in medical science are explained with carefulness. The diagnoses and reports of cases are by some of the ablest physicians of the country. The June number, just published, is fully up to the standard of its predecessors.

Funeral of Mrs. Williamson.

Our entire community was shocked and saddened on Sunday last by the death of the estimable wife of Capt. B. P. Williamson. The last sad rites were performed yesterday. The funeral took place from the Salisbury Street Baptist Church, Rev. Dr. Pritchard officiating. The remains were interred at Oakwood.

Attractive.

The advertisement of L. Rosenthal, to be seen in another column, certainly merits the above title, as will be agreed upon a perusal. Should one fail to be convinced a visit to the store will surely prove its truth.

Light and Cheering.

And now comes the news that we are to have a new gas establishment, not a printing office, but a regular light-giving affair under the name and style of the "Citizens Gas Company," with Mr. Samuel Merril, as General Manager. The new company will soon begin to give us more light on the subject. The competition between the new-comer and the present establishment will doubtless be sharp, nor will our citizens fail to take a due pleasure in such cutting down of rates. The rate per 1000 feet charged by the new company will be $3.50. This looks more reasonable, to say the least, and is a start towards a reasonable price. It will give us a good light at a rate we can afford to pay.

Wake Forest College.

The commencement exercises of this Institution begin to-day. As usual, the attendance of our citizens, who naturally take much interest in the welfare of the school, will be large. We shall give our readers, from day to day, the fullest reports attainable of the proceedings.

Decorated Glass

of all kinds, colors, and styles suitable for front doors, transoms, etc., sample kept in stock, Julius Lewis & Co., Hardware Merchants, Raleigh, N. C.

A General Invitation

is extended to the public to call at J. C. Brewster's where will be found the most complete stock of stoves and house-furnishing goods in the city. Seasonable goods, such as fly fans, fly traps, wire dish covers, fruit jars, &c., hardware and builders' material, edge tools, iron, steel, nails, horse and mule shoes.

Tin roofing cheaper than shingles. Job work all kinds—all work warrented.

J. P. Gulley Offers.

new style silk veiling at 65c., worth $1.25; ladies 2 button kid gloves at 50cts.; great novelties in corsets at prices from 35cts. to $2.00; Dr. Warner's health corsets at 50cts. to $2.00. Especial attention is called to the grass corset at $1.50, for comfort. Straw matting at 20 and 25cts; also a nice line of dress goods, piques, &c., at bottom prices. I also call especial attention to the fact that I have the best ladies morocco shoe for $2.00 in the market, equal to Miles' or Ziegler's. Call and see his goods and examine prices. tf*

Lumsden's "Old North State Cook Stove" still leads the market as the best and cheapest stove. Lumsden makes a specialty of repairing Sewing Machines of any pattern, Guns, Pistols, Locks, &c. All work warranted. He has just received a large lot of mocking and canary bird cages, fly traps, dish covers, fishing tackle, brooms, baskets, and every thing you want in the house furnishing line can be found at Lumsden's, cheaper than such goods were ever sold before. *

A large lot of Clay Pease for sale low for cash at W. A. Myatt's. *

Something Worth Attention.

Consigners of county produce should ship to A. C. Sanders & Co., because they are the only commission merchants in Raleigh. They do not buy at all on their own account, but make prompt returns, at the same prices they sell at, which are the highest this market affords. *

Cool---Refreshing---Healthy.

Our citizens will find the celebrated Apollinaris water in bottles at Simpson's drug store; price per glass, iced, only 10 cents. Seltzer, Kissengen, Vichy and other mineral waters on draught.

Root beer for five cents a glass, at Simpson's drug store. *tf.

For Rent.

The new house which I now occupy on Wilmington street, one block from the new postoffice. It has six good rooms, with closets, out houses, and water, on lot of half acre. Immediate possession will be given.

I have tried the Xanthine, and found it to be all it claims in restoring hair to its natural color and removing dandruff. W. W. BENNETT.

(From Rev. Mr. Cameron, Minister of the Presbyterian Church South.)

MOSSY CREEK, Tenn., August 22, 1876.

Xanthine Co., Richmond, Va.:

I have used the Xanthine now for three years, and have induced others to try it, and have never known it to fail in accomplishing all you claim for it. It is an excellent tonic a pleasant dressing, removing and preventing dandruff and all unpleasant itching, promoting and preserving the natural growth and color of the hair, and rendering it glossy and pliable. I confidently, cheerfully and knowingly recommend it.

AGRICULTURAL LIME.

To The Cotton Growers of North Carolina.

The Commissioner of Agriculture having decided that I cannot have an Agency in your State for the sale of this cheap and valuable fertilizer, without paying a tax of $ 00—which I cannot do without materially advancing the price, I solicit your orders for it, which will be promptly filled on the following terms on board cars in Richmond:

$12 Per Ton Cash, or $15 Per

TON for an approved acceptance on Raleigh, Charlotte, Wilmington, Petersburg, Norfolk, or Richmond, payable on the 1st of November next, or at 8 months from date.

I respectfully refer you to Messrs. J. J. Thomas, Raleigh; J. W. O'Neil, Clayton and others who sold it last spring, and to the various farmers who used it, who say it makes as much cotton as fertilizers costing 3 or 4 times as much. Address,
